Reflections of The K. P. A. Trip.

The golden-hearted daisies, the hollyhocks, the wild roses, the larkspur and the orchid are blooming in all their glory, the strawberries are ripening, and Nature seems to smile all day long on the rock-walled isle of Mackinac. Speaking of Nature, I have had rare opportunities to note the advance of the seasons this year. In February I saw the fragrant rose and the luscious strawberry in Louisiana and Florida, and on May Day saw them bloom at Lookout Mountain and Chickamauga. In June the Bluegrass roses and strawberries gave me joy, and in July they greeted me at breeze-swept Mackinac. Is it any wonder that such a country is dear to the heart of every American?

All of Detroit is justly proud of Belle Isle Park, which is one of the loveliest spots I ever saw. It is an island, containing 700 acres, which the city purchased years ago for $160,000. From a swampy tract known first as Snake Island, and later as Hog Island, it was improved by drives, walks, lakes, club houses, etc., until it is a place of wondrous beauty, famed far and wide as "Beautiful Belle Isle," the pride of Detroit.

It was a mean trick in Jim Allen, of the Cynthiana Democrat, to class the writer along with 3,647,021 persons who wrote poems on "Remember The Maine." Neither is the writer guilty of any Manila, Santiago or Havana poems. The world does not know that Mr. Allen was only prevented from carrying out his threat to write a poem on "Remember The Maine," by an injunction being sworn out by the writer, and Billy Hill, of the Reporter.

Who planned the trip to Mackinac?
Who hour by hour laid down the law?
Who never ceased to work his jaw?
—(Cynthiana Democrat.)
Who made announcements by the score?
Who always had the deck—and floor?
Who had a thousand jokes in store?
—Bob Morningstar.

The Elkton Progress furnishes this brief history of the K. P. A.: "The Kentucky Press Association was organized at Frankfort in January, 1869, by the election of the distinguished George D. Prentice as President. The present President, Mr. H. E. Woolfolk, makes the fourteenth President the association has had in the following order: 1869, George D. Prentice; 1870, W. M. Halde-man; 1870-86, J. Stoddard Johnston; 1886, J. W. Hopper; 1888, E. Polk Johnson; 1890, Urey Woodson; 1891, H. A. Sommers; 1892, C. M. Meacham; 1893, Sam J. Roberts; 1894, I. B. Nall; 1895, John A. Bell; 1896, Ben D. Ringo; 1897, L. W. Gaines; 1898, H. E. Woolfolk. The association has steadily grown through many years and is to day one of the strongest state organizations in the Union."

As the K. P. A. was leaving Mackinac I heard an editor say that the expenses of three persons in his party had not aggregated $50—but there were others. Two of the boys took a thirty-five minute horseback ride on the island and paid $6 for the pleasure. Another high-flier had extra meals served in his room, and his bill for two days was $17. These are mere bagatelles, however, to the Kentucky editor who is out on a pleasure jaunt.

One incident of the K. P. A. trip is indelibly impressed on the memory of seven or eight Kentuckians. They failed to secure a stateroom, but enjoyed the sleep of the just on cots in the cabin. At an unusually early hour a number of lady passengers congregated on the stairway in full view of the editorial sleepers. One by one the modest newspaper men awoke and were horrified by the embarrassing situation. The ladies seemed to have no desire to go out on deck. To lie under cover longer meant to make a toilet before a larger crowd of spectators. Stealthily the editors crawled out in various states of undress and embarrassment and made their toilets in uncomfortably meek and lowly positions—with at least twelve women in full view. The men never before felt so much in evidence—but they couldn't stay in bed all day. The incident is closed. W. C.

MANY a colored gentleman will envy the Spanish soldiers that free excursion over the sea.

WORD comes from Guatemala that Dr. Godfrey Hunter is expected to arrive in Kentucky in August on a leave of absence—just when Kentucky had forgotten all about Godfrey.

DURING a recent battle in Cuba the valise of Richard Harding Davis, correspondent for the New York Journal was lost, and fell into the hands of the colored soldiers of the Tenth Cavalry, who appropriated his striped trousers and fancy shirts. And the blow almost killed Richard.

A Shattered Nervous System.

FINALLY HEART TROUBLE.

Restored to Health by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

M. R. EDWARD HARDY, the jolly manager of Sheppard Co.'s great store at Bracerville, Ill., writes: "I had never been sick a day in my life until 1890. I got so bad with nervous prostration that I had to give up and commence to doctor. I tried our local physicians and one in Joliet, but none gave me any relief and I thought I was going to die. I became despondent and suffered untold agony. I could not eat, sleep nor rest, and it seemed as if I could not exist. At the end of six months I was reduced to but a shadow of myself, and at last my heart became affected and I was truly miserable. I took six or eight bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine. It gave me relief from the start, and at last a cure, the greatest blessing of my life."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

A Fleshy Consumptive

Did you ever see one? Did you ever hear of one? Most certainly not. Consumption is a disease that invariably causes loss of flesh.

If you are light in weight, even if your cough is only a slight one, you should certainly take of cod liver oil with hypophosphites. No remedy is such a perfect preventive to consumption. Just the moment your throat begins to weaken and you find you are losing flesh, you should begin to take it. And no other remedy has cured so many cases of consumption. Unless you are far advanced with this disease, Scott's Emulsion will hold every inducement to you for a perfect cure.

Scott's Emulsion
